

21, 22 January – Grandparents day

At the end of 2013 post-working age population was 7078,2 thous. The share of post-working age population in the total population amounted to 18,4%. According to projections in 2050 the number of population will amount to 33951 thous. while share of older people (65 and more) will reach over 32% (in 2020 it will be slightly below 19%). At the end of 2013 in Poland there were 461 stationary welfare facilities for older people, which were used by 19843 aged persons.

Share of post-working age population in the total population (in percent)

Relation of number of children to older persons (aged 65 and more) per 1000 children (aged 0-14)<sup>a</sup>

Average gross retirement and other pension benefits<sup>a</sup>

Population projection (in thous.)

