

Terms used in official statistics

Hypermarket

Definition:

Hypermarkets are stores with a sales area of 2500 sq.m or more, selling goods in a self-service system while offering a wide assortment of foodstuff goods and frequently bought non-foodstuff goods, usually with a parking place.

High-level terms

- Shop

Contact person on methodology:

GUS - Departament Handlu i Usług

e-mail: Sekretariat-HU@stat.gov.pl