

Terms used in official statistics

Supermarket

Definition:

Supermarkets are stores with a sales area between 400 and 2499 sq.m, selling goods in a self-service system while offering a wide assortment of foodstuff goods and frequently bought non-foodstuff goods.

High-level terms

- Shop

Contact person on methodology:

GUS - Departament Handlu i Usług

e-mail: Sekretariat-HU@stat.gov.pl