

Terms used in official statistics

Inhabited dwelling

Definition:

A dwelling in which at least one person resides, regardless of whether such a person is registered for a temporary or permanent residence in this dwelling or stays in it without being registered for a temporary or permanent residence.

High-level terms

- Dwelling

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Lublinie

e-mail: sekretariatUSlub@stat.gov.pl