

Terms used in official statistics

Building equipped with sewerage network

A building inside of which - in dwellings or in the corridor - there is installation (to which devices like: a sink, a flushed toilet, a washbasin, a bathtub are connected), enabling drainage of waste and wastewater (so-called household wastewater) to collectors such as the network, a septic tank, an independent wastewater treatment system, a canal.

Dwelling fitted with (sanitary and technical) installations

sekretariatUSlub@stat.gov.pl