

Terms used in official statistics

Main source of maintenance of the person

Definition:

The principal source of income from which the consumption of each person was financed over the year's highest earnings or income. When holding only one source of income, it is the main source and also the sole source of income of the person.

Contact person on methodology:

GUS - Departament Badań Demograficznych

e-mail: Sekretariat-BD@stat.gov.pl