

Terms used in official statistics

Land associated with forest management

Definition:

Lands used for forest management: occupied by buildings or building sites, melioration installations and systems, forest division lines, forest roads, land beneath power lines, forest nurseries and timber stores; or else put to use as forest car parks or tourist infrastructure.

Source:

- Act of 28 September 1991 on Forests
Place of publication: (Dz. U. z 2024 r. poz. 530)

High-level terms

- Forest land

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Białymstoku

e-mail: SekretariatUSBST@stat.gov.pl