

Terms used in official statistics

Child in the family

Definition:

Person at any age, which remains in the private household (or stays in an institutional household) together with one or both parents and does not constitute his/her own family. Children include also stepchildren and adopted children.

Contact person on methodology:

GUS - Departament Badań Demograficznych

e-mail: Sekretariat-BD@stat.gov.pl