

Terms used in official statistics

Watersupply connection

The section of connection connecting the water supply network with the internal water network in the dwelling being the recipient of such services together with the valve on the main water meter.

Water supply system

sekretariatUSlub@stat.gov.pl