

Terms used in official statistics

Useful floor space of a dwelling completed

Definition:

Useful floor space of dwellings whose completion was reported by an investor to the building control authorities and this body did not raise any objections (by decision) or for the use of which the investor has obtained permission (through a decision) from the building control authorities.

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Lublinie

e-mail: sekretariatUSlub@stat.gov.pl