Statistics Poland

Terms used in official statistics

Non-forestlands destinated for afforestation

Definition:
Land so far cultivated for non-forest purposes (agricultural, waste, and other land) designed for afforestation in local physical development plan or decision on building conditions and site management. When no plan of this type is available and when afforestation is against the rules and regulations stipulated in the study of conditions and directions of gmina physical development.

Contact person on methodology:
Urząd Statystyczny w Białymstoku
e-mail: SekretariatUSBST@stat.gov.pl