

Terms used in official statistics

Seminar

Definition:

Out of school type of learning taking at least 5 hours of education activities leading to reception or completion of knowledge about a definite subject, carried out according to the training provider's syllabus.

A seminar is characterised by active participation of trainees who independently develop some of the issues discussed at the seminar and then present their work in the form of a presentation, lecture or in another way, as well as contribute to discussions on a given issue, demonstrating their knowledge.

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Gdańsku

e-mail: SekretariatUSGDK@stat.gov.pl