

Terms used in official statistics

Forest land designated for non-forest purposes

Definition:

Forest land where was started other than forestry the way of use, for example started the construction of objects of residential, industrial, transportation routes, etc.

Data on forest land excluded from forest production for non-forest purposes relate to the land, for which payments and fees under the Act on the protection of agricultural and forest land.

Source:

- Act of 3 February 1995 on Agricultural and Forest Land Protection

Place of publication: (Dz. U. z 2024 r. poz. 82)

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Białymstoku

e-mail: SekretariatUSBST@stat.gov.pl