

Terms used in official statistics

Internet

Definition:

Global and public system of interconnected computer networks that use the standardized Internet Protocol Suite (TCP/IP). It is a network of networks that consists of millions of local networks and single computers from all over the world. E-mail, www, FTP and other services are available to use via Internet.

High-level terms

- Computer network

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Szczecinie

e-mail: SekretariatUSSZC@stat.gov.pl