

Terms used in official statistics

Trade warehouse

Definition:

Organisational and functional unit, occupying a separate warehouse space, with equipment and technical devices allowing for storage of goods according to storage requirements and employing staff for proper operation of this equipment.

Trade warehouse, apart from their traditional function keep a register of purchases, sales and the level of stocks as well as independent financial analyses with the use of computer-aided techniques.

Low-level terms:

- Wholesale warehouse
- Retail distribution warehouse

Contact person on methodology:

GUS - Departament Handlu i Usług

e-mail: Sekretariat-HU@stat.gov.pl