

Terms used in official statistics

Person practising sport

A person who actively practises a particular type of sport systematically participating in trainings or in other form of sports activities as well as in sports or recreational events.

sekretariatusrze@stat.gov.pl