Statistics Poland

Terms used in official statistics

Emergency Medical Technician(Paramedic)

Definition:
A person performing the medical profession, holding licence in particular to perform medical rescue activities in case of a direct, sudden threat to life or health.

Medical profession which tasks include: protection of people in place of the incident and taking measures to prevent increasing numbers of casualties and environmental degradation, assessing the health status of people in a state of sudden health threat and performing medical rescue activities, transporting people in a state of the sudden health threat, communicating with person in a state of the sudden healthy threat together with providing him/her mental suppert, organizing and conducting classes on first aid, qualified first aid and medical rescue activities.

Source:

- Act of 8 September 2006 on State Emergency Medical Services
  Place of publication: (Dz. U. z 2024 r. poz. 652)

High-level terms

- Emergency medical services

Contact person on methodology:
Urząd Statystyczny w Krakowie
e-mail: SekretariatUSKRK@stat.gov.pl