

Terms used in official statistics

Forestry

A branch of the national economy including activity connected with national forest production, or a part of forest division with technical, economic and protective functions.

SekretariatUSBST@stat.gov.pl