

Terms used in official statistics

Net migration per 1000 population

Net migration per 1000 population for given administrative unit/country is an increase/decrease in population of this unit/country as a result of migration per 1000 population/country of this unit (as in a half of the period considered).

Net migration for permanent residence

Sekretariat-BD@stat.gov.pl