

Terms used in official statistics

Job offer

Definition:

Declaring by the employer to the powiat labour office: - at least one vacant place of employment or other paid work, - place of occupational activation, adopted to implementation.

For example: performing work or providing services on the basis of the civil-legal contracts (among others traineeship, occupational preparation of adults, social utility work), in a particular occupation or speciality, in order to find an appropriate employee.

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Bydgoszczy

e-mail: SekretariatUSBDG@stat.gov.pl