

Terms used in official statistics

Vacancies

Definition:

Positions or jobs unoccupied due to labour turnover or newly created ones that simultaneously meet the following three conditions: 1) the positions and jobs were actually unoccupied on the survey day, 2) the employer made efforts to find people willing to take up the job, 3) if adequate candidates were found to occupy the vacancies, the employer would readily take them on.

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Bydgoszczy

e-mail: SekretariatUSBDG@stat.gov.pl