

Terms used in official statistics

Production area of forest nurseries

Definition:

Area designated directly for the production of cuttings of forest trees and bushes for the purposes of afforestation and renewals. i.e. covered by seedlings and perennial cuttings, and laid fallow. It does not include the area of roads, paths, designed for warehouses and other facilities in the forest nursery.

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Białymstoku

e-mail: SekretariatUSBST@stat.gov.pl