

Terms used in official statistics

Procurement prices

Definition:

Prices paid to agricultural producers by economic entities purchasing agricultural products directly from their producers. Procurement prices included in this publication are average prices calculated as a quotient of value (without value added tax) and quantity of each agricultural product purchased in a surveyed period

Contact person on methodology:

GUS – Departament Handlu i Usług

e-mail: Sekretariat-HU@stat.gov.pl