

Terms used in official statistics

Large-size timber wood

Definition:

Wood produced of wood run of the bigger diameter of 14 cm or more (under bark), measured in individual items. Depending on the quality and dimensions, large-size timber wood is divided into four categories: A, B, C, D and sub-categories: general purpose wood and special wood.

High-level terms

- Timber \(large timber\)
- Wood assortment

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Białymstoku

e-mail: SekretariatUSBST@stat.gov.pl