Terms used in official statistics

Nursery school

An establishment for children between the age of 3 years and the beginning of their education in a primary school, supporting individual development, providing care adequate for the children's needs and preparing them for school education.

Pre-primary education

SekretariatUSGDK@stat.gov.pl