Statistics Poland

Terms used in official statistics

The rate of detectability of delinquents

Definition:
The ratio of the number of crimes detected in a given year (including those detected after being remitted from remission) to the number of crimes identified in a given year, increased by the number of crimes identified in the proceedings undertaken, and discontinued in previous years due to failure to identify the delinquents.

Contact person on methodology:
GUS – Departament Badań Społecznych
e-mail: Sekretariat-BS@stat.gov.pl