

Terms used in official statistics

Graduate

A person who completed the highest grade of a given school programme and obtained a certificate of completing this school - this applies to graduates of schools covered by the education system.

A graduate of a higher education institution obtains a tertiary education diploma in a given field and profile of study, confirming the award of:

SekretariatUSGDK@stat.gov.pl

Graduate