Large Family Card

Definition:
System of discounts and additional entitlements for 3+ families both in public institutions and in private companies. LFC holders have the possibility of cheaper use of the offer of entities, among others from the food, fuel, banking or recreation industry.

The definition is taken from the MRPiPS website. The Law on LFC sets out the rules for granting the Card to members of large families, the method of granting them rights and the manner of implementing and financing the tasks arising from the Law.
