

Terms used in official statistics

Local spatial management plan

Definition:

Document outlining spatial plan of the commune (planning document), adopted as a bye-law by the commune council. This document divides the land that it covers by use of dividing lines, into sub-areas with designated land functions, development principles, provision with infrastructure, and – if deemed necessary – local conditions, principles and standards for building design, as well as other conditions requiring planning regulations.

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny we Wrocławiu

e-mail: sekretariatuswro@stat.gov.pl