

Terms used in official statistics

Public bike system

Definition:

A bicycle mobility system based on a fleet of public bicycles with technical and ICT facilities, offering free or low-cost bicycle transport for residents of a given area or visitors. Used as one of the means of transport when traveling. It is usually used for short distances.

Source:

- Act of 21 March 1985 on Public Roads

Place of publication: (Dz. U. z 2024 r. poz. 320)

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Szczecinie

e-mail: SekretariatUSSZC@stat.gov.pl