Statistics Poland

Terms used in official statistics

Distribution thermic-line

Definition:
System of distribution pipes supplying heating factor to household connections.

Household connections are heat pipes supplying heating factor from distribution pipe or from a boiler house to an exchanger or interior installations of a building or other individual objects.

Contact person on methodology:
Urząd Statystyczny w Rzeszowie
e-mail: sekretariatusrze@stat.gov.pl