

Terms used in official statistics

Transfer junction

A place enabling a convenient change of the means of transport, equipped with the infrastructure necessary for servicing travelers, in particular: parking spaces, communication stops, ticket sales points, information systems allowing to get acquainted with the timetable, communication line or communication network.

SekretariatUSSZC@stat.gov.pl