

Terms used in official statistics

Net revenues from sale of products, goods and materials

Domestic and export sales of products (finished, semi-finished products and services) manufactured by the unit together with packaging, equipment and third party services if invoiced along with products to customers, sales of goods and materials, i.e. tangible current assets purchased for resale in the same condition as received and products manufactured by the unit if they are sold in a chain of own stores along with the third-party goods, as well as amounts due for goods and materials sold regardless whether or not they have been paid.

Sales revenues (excluding VAT)

Sekretariat-PZ@stat.gov.pl

Net revenues from sale of products, goods and materials