

Terms used in official statistics

Marketplace

Definition:

Specific area or structure (square, street, market hall) with permanent or seasonal outlets for small-scale retail sales or with facilities designated for conducting trade every day or on specific days of the week. They are often called bazaar.

Low-level terms:

- Seasonal marketplace
- Permanent marketplace

Contact person on methodology:

GUS – Departament Handlu i Usług

e-mail: Sekretariat-HU@stat.gov.pl