

Terms used in official statistics

Theatre

Theatre is an institution or organisation engaged in professional regular stage performances (dramatic, puppet, musical and entertainment) with the participation of actors, singers, dancers, directors, stage designers etc.), usually having its own building or premises designed to stage performances with the use of various transmission techniques: word, movement, music, sound, arts.

SekretariatUSKRK@stat.gov.pl