Statistics Poland

Terms used in official statistics

Water delivered to households

Definition:

Consumption of water from water supply system in households and group institutional households, against payment or free of charge, regardless of the amount of payment for such the water and the location of the household (town, village).

Consumption of water in households does not include water delivered to unfinished and not commissioned residential buildings as well as water delivered to temporary accommodation places, such as: dormitories, hotels, holiday establishments, sanatoria, tourist hostels, weekday nurseries, hospitals, penitentiary establishments, etc.

High-level terms

- Water supply system

Contact person on methodology:
Urząd Statystyczny w Lublinie
e-mail: sekretariatUSlub@stat.gov.pl