Statistics Poland

Terms used in official statistics

Foreigners

Definition:
Persons who do not have citizenship of the country where they reside.

Foreigners residing permanently in Poland are included in the population of Poland, the remaining foreigners (irrespective of the length of stay) form the group of immigrants temporarily residing in Poland (thus, they are not included in the Polish population).

Source:
- Act of 12 December 2013 on Foreigners
  Place of publication: (Dz. U. 2021 poz. 2354, z późn. zm.)

High-level terms
- Immigrants
- Citizenship

Low-level terms:
- Refugee

Contact person on methodology:
GUS – Departament Badań Demograficznych
e-mail: Sekretariat-BD@stat.gov.pl