

Terms used in official statistics

Maritime transport fleet

Ships designed for the transport of cargo and passengers.

They can be divided into the following: cargo, passenger, and the combination thereof, i.e. passenger-cargo and cargo-passenger ships. Passenger ships - ships with cabins provided for more than 12 passengers. Parcels, passenger cars, etc. may also be taken on board.

Seagoing vessels

Seagoing barge

Tanker

Dry cargo ship

Passenger ship

SekretariatUSSZC@stat.gov.pl