

Terms used in official statistics

Maritime transport fleet

Definition:

Ships designed for the transport of cargo and passengers.

They can be divided into the following: cargo, passenger, and the combination thereof, i.e. passenger-cargo and cargo-passenger ships. Passenger ships - ships with cabins provided for more than 12 passengers. Parcels, passenger cars, etc. may also be taken on board.

High-level terms

- Seagoing vessels

Low-level terms:

- Seagoing barge
- Tanker
- Dry cargo ship
- Passenger ship

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Szczecinie

e-mail: SekretariatUSSZC@stat.gov.pl