Statistics Poland

Terms used in official statistics

Statistical locality

Definition:
A group of localities usually consisting of a village and adjacent hamlets or other smaller localities for which statistical data are collected and processed jointly. It is usually identified by the mutual name of the larger locality. In certain cases, this may consist solely of one locality.

Contact person on methodology:
GUS – Departament Organizacji Badań i Rejestrów
e-mail: sekretariat-OR@stat.gov.pl