

Terms used in official statistics

Post office

Definition:

An organizational unit postal operator, or agent in the mail, which can be included a contract for the provision of a postal service or who served on the recipients of mail or a sum of money specified in postal communications, or other isolated and identified by the postal operator where you can enter into a contract for the provision of a postal service or pick up the mail or an amount of money specified in the transmission post.

Contact person on methodology:

Urząd Statystyczny w Szczecinie

e-mail: SekretariatUSSZC@stat.gov.pl