

WORKSHOP ON LABOUR FORCE SURVEY METHODOLOGY

8th Workshop on Labour Force Survey Methodology

Gdansk, Poland, 23 - 24 May 2013

LFS OUTPUT

DRAFT AGENDA

Thursday, 23 May 2013

09:00 - 09:30 Registration of the participants

09:30 - 09:45 Welcome by CSO

09:45 - 11:15	A	Statistics on labour market dynamics	Antonio Discenza	Chair
	A1	Labour market flows estimates for Portugal	Sónia Torres	PT
	A2	Labour market dynamic	Anouk Bläuer-Herrmann	CH
	A3	What can the LFS learn from register-based statistics on labour market flows	Ole Villund	NO
	A4	Measuring transitions in ILO status for the EU: some first interesting results	Frank Espelage	EU

11:15 - 11:45 Coffee and tea break

11:45 - 13:15	B	Quality of employment	Johan van der Valk	Chair
	B1	Measuring quality of employment – The UNECE/ILO/Eurostat framework and its implementation as statistical output	Thomas Körner	DE
	B2	One number on job quality in Europe: operationalisation based on the 5th European working conditions survey	Agnes Parent Thirion	Eurofound
	B3	Measuring job satisfaction in Italian Labour force survey	Francesca della Ratta	IT
	B4	Some elements of employment quality. Which links with wish of another job ?	Fabien Guggemos	FR

13:15 - 14:45 Lunch break

14:45 - 16:15	C	Ambivalent professional status (quasi employees or fake self-employed)	Thomas Körner	Chair
	C1	Slovak experience with fake self-employment	Dáša Rachelová	SK
	C2	Additional questions to better measure the self-declared professional status and how to link the mismatches produced in previous series through an econometric model	Javier Orche Galindo, Miguel Ángel García Martínez	ES
	C3	The new self-employed in the Netherlands and the rest of Europe	Lian Kösters	NL
	C4	Rise of involuntary self-employment? Case of Finland	Anna Pärnänen	FI

16:15 - 16:45 Coffee and tea break

16:45 - 17:30	D	Types of atypical (or non-standard) employment	Hanna Strzelecka	Chair
	D1	Atypical employment. German experiences and steps towards international measurement	Christian Wingerter	DE
	D2	Standard and non-standard employment during the crisis in Austria and the conceptualization of different forms of non-standard employment	Käthe Knittler	AT

17:30 - 19:00 City tour of Gdansk

20:30 Dinner

Friday, 24 May 2013

09:00 - 9:45	E	Youth unemployment compared	Sónia Torres	Chair
	E1	Comparing youth unemployment	Anna Broman, Karl Erik Kristiansson	SE
	E2	Comparing youth unemployment figures in EU countries: do unemployment figures reflect marginalization of youth?	Liisa Larja	FI
9:45 - 11:00	F	Results of comparative analysis	Frank Espelage	Chair
	F1	How to deal with educational bias in the LFS – A comparison between the use of educational registers in Denmark and Sweden	Frida Videll, Jonas Gielfeldt	SE, DK
	F2	Outside the Box: Cross-Border Dependency of Labour Market Issues in Luxembourg	Christiane Löh	LU
	F3	Working hours: analysis of Italian LFS results versus administrative data and business survey	Andrea Spizzichino, Silvia Loriga	IT
11:00 - 11:30		Coffee and tea break
11:30 - 13:00	G	Other interesting new output	Michael Frosch	Chair
	G1	Additional indicators plus of the unemployment	Martijn Souren	NL
	G2	Implementation experiences of the supplementary indicators on unemployment in Germany	Martina Rengers	DE
	G3	Commuting to work in the Polish LFS	Andrzej Gieszczyk	PL
	G4	New household variables for the EU LFS to broaden the knowledge on labour market participation	Johan van der Valk	EU
13:00 - 14:15		Lunch break
14:15 - 15:30	H	Dissemination and publication issues	Agnieszka Zgierska	Chair
	H1	Publication of small figures	Melitta Fasching	AT
	H2	Breaks in the LFS and their treatment: Italian experiences on survey breaks in 1992 and 2004 and the recent NACE changes	Antonio Discenza	IT
	H3	Dissemination of LFS results in Latvia	Zane Mangale	LT
15:30 - 16:00		Closing of the Workshop & looking ahead	Agnieszka Zgierska, Johan van der Valk, Antonio Discenza	PL, EU, IT